

I wish to have Indiana's Telephone Privacy law upheld. It is my understanding that The Consumer Bankers Association is challenging this law. I have already chosen to not receive unsolicited business calls, including those from firms with whom I currently do business. Please honor my wishes by not permitting an exemption to certain firms. I am capable of telephoning these businesses if I desire their services.